Intro Copy

MUKMIN's membership ecosystem is designed to unite organisations, community networks, institutions, and individuals under a shared commitment towards collaboration, empowerment, and long-term impact.

As a national coordinating ecosystem, MUKMIN brings together NGOs, civil society organisations, chambers of commerce, grassroots networks, and strategic stakeholders to strengthen collective action and community transformation across Malaysia.

Through participation in the ecosystem, members gain opportunities to collaborate, contribute, participate in strategic initiatives, and be part of a growing national movement shaping inclusive and sustainable development.
